Delay in deciding pension cases of NDMC employees

1358. PROF. ALKA BALRAM KSHATRIYA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that lot of time is taken by New Delhi Municipal Council in deciding cases of pensions, gratuity, etc. of its employees who retire or die in harness;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) the number of such cases still pending for payment of pension, gratuity etc. as on 30th November, 2004 for the last three months, six months and more than six months; and

(d) the steps taken to ensure that pension cases are settled expeditiously?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) and (b) The New Delhi Municipal Council has reported that all the dues in case of retiring employees are normally settled well in advance and the cheques are delivered to the employees on the date of retirement itself. However, action for settlement of dues in case of death/voluntary retirement is initiated immediately on receipt of claim-documents from the nominee/dependent/employee.

(c) Seventy cases for payment of pension/gratuity are pending which include 9 cases pending for the last six months and 61 cases pending for more than six months. Out of 70 cases, 66 are death cases, 3 cases relate to compulsory retirement and 1 to normal superannuation.

(d) Action has been initiated to get the nomination forms of affected employees filled up to expedite release of pensionary benefits in cases of retirement/voluntary retirement/death.
